Proceedings of the Government of His Highness the Maharaja of Mysore.

Read-

The following orders regarding the grant of advances for the purposes of building or purchasing houses for the use of Government servants.

(List appended to this order)

Order thereon-No. JC 3490-538

Dated 97588-115 7/2604/14

Owing to want of proper understanding of the rules on the subject read above, Government are receiving frequent applications for the grant of advances not covered by the orders already passed. In order to avoid all such unnecessary correspondence, it has become necessary to issue a Consolidated order explaining ~~to explain~~ once again the conditions and circumstances under which ~~alone~~ advances are given for building or purchasing houses, ~~and to issue one consolidated order instead of the existing ones.~~ Accordingly the Government of His Highness the Maharaja the Maharaja of Mysore are pleased to lay down the following rules.

1. Advances from the General Revenues without interest are made to Government servants for two objects, Viz, (i) House building and (ii) House purchasing. No advance of any kind is made for repairing or improving a house.

2. House building advances are subject to the maximum limit of either 12 months' pay or 6 months' pay. The former limit is restricted to the case of houses in the extensions of Mysore, Bangalore and Shimoga towns. The latter applies to all other places in the State provided the conditions mentioned in Article 136, Civil Account Code, Volume I, applies to that locality.

3. Advances for purchasing a house are restricted only to the grant of 6 months' pay irrespective of the locality where the house is situated.

4. A Government servant working in a station other than the one in which the building is to be purchased or ~~erected~~ Constructed cannot get any advance unless it be for a house in the Extensions of Bangalore, Mysore and Shimoga towns.

5. Advances from the General Revenues cannot be made to Municipal, Palace and Trust Board servants, nor can Government servants get any advance from other than the General Revenues.

6. Advances of one year's pay is recoverable in 48 equal monthly instalments and ~~those~~ that of 6 months in 24 equal monthly instalments.

7. No second advance is admissible in any case to the same person, either for building a house or purchasing one in the same station. But there is no objection to an advance sanctioned being drawn in instalments as required.

8. The advance should be drawn only when there is immediate necessity therefor and any portion of this advance not
